Art Unit: 3727

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-15, drawn to a subcombination of a spill reducing apparatus, classified in class 220, subclass 715.
- II. Claims 16, drawn to a combination of a sealing apparatus and cup, classified in class 220, subclass 703.
- III. Claims 17-20, drawn to a combination of a spill reducing apparatus and lid, classified in class 220, subclass 326.
- IV. Claims 21-28, drawn to a combination of spill reducing device, a cup and a lid, classified in class 220, subclass 740.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions (II, III and IV) and I are related as combination and subcombination.

Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the combinations don't require a horizontal portion which extends over the lid. The subcombination has separate utility such as a gripping tool similar to a pair of pliers used as a clamp.

Inventions (III and IV) and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the combinations do not have the horizontal return spring. The subcombination has separate utility such as a sealing apparatus and cup for a reinforcing rim and doesn't have to be used for a lid.

Inventions IV and III are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the combination doesn't have at least two spaced apart locking latches. The subcombination has separate utility such as a spill reducing apparatus and lid for a paint container and doesn't have to be used for a cup.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

A telephone call was made to Mr. Ramon Klitzke on April 4, 2005 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Art Unit: 3727

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
